FORTY YEARS AGO

Janesville Daily Gazette, Friday, January 17, 1868.—Union prayer meeting at Baptist Church this evening at 7 o'clock.

Accident.—A young man named Amos Miller had a hand quite badly torn while working on a shipping machine in the Clow Reaper Works this morning.

The Daily Northwestern.—This new daily paper just started at Oshkosh, exhibits the right kind of enterprise in local matters and in its general makeup. The publishers deserve success.

The members of the Water Wheel Engine Co. No. 2 are hereby notified to meet at their engine house on Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Every member is requested to attend. JON H. HOBSON, Foreman.

Wolf Killed.—We saw at the office of the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors today, the skin of a wolf killed on Monday last near Afton. By Mr. Harvey Hoyt. It was of the species known as the timber wolf and was of sufficient size to have carried off a child easily. Such a "varmint" ought to be disposed of summarily.

Old Hall.—It is quite evident that our citizens appreciate the musical treat that is about to be offered to them in the concert of Ole Bull and the eminent artists who accompany him. The seats in the hall are being disposed of rapidly and it will be necessary for those who intend going to secure one at once.

Fire Alarm.—An alarm of fire was sounded last evening between six and seven o'clock which was found to proceed from the lard and soap works on Main street. It was caused by the burning of grease which boiled over from a cauldron under which there was a broken fire. The flames were immediately extinguished and no damage was done.

Fire For Assault and Battery.—A man calling himself J. H. C. Richardson who has been about our streets for a number of months selling songs and representing himself to be a blind soldier, was up before Justice Hudson this morning charged with assault and battery on his wife. The evidence substantiating the complaint, he was fined five dollars and costs.

Almost Fires.—On Wednesday evening the residence of Alderman Bates came very near being destroyed by fire through the carelessness of a servant.

Deadly morning a fire got under the heavy drapery at the home of Dr. L. J. Barrows. Timely discovery prevented serious consequences.

This morning a bed room fire at the home of Mrs. Scherlock on Third street.

Too much caution cannot be used in regard to fires.

MRS. G. N. BECKWITH DIED LAST EVENING

At Her Home in Chicago—Was Formerly Miss Rose Nash of This City—Funeral Saturday Afternoon.

Word was received here this morning of the death of Mrs. G. N. Beckwith, formerly Miss Rose Nash of this city, at her home, 107 East Forty-fourth street, Chicago, at eleven o'clock last evening. Besides her husband, who is an architect, the deceased is survived by one son and a brother, Hiram Nash, who resides in Sacramento, Cal. Mrs. Charles H. Wehrle of this city, a niece, had been at Mrs. Beckwith's bedside for several days past. She was afflicted with an almost hopeless cancer, though her family and friends expected that her life would be prolonged by an operation which she recently underwent. Funeral services will be held at the residence at one o'clock Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Charles Schottle. Sad tidings have reached C. J. Schottle of this city of the death of his mother, Mrs. Charles Schottle, at her home in Freeport, as the result of an accident last New Year's evening whereby she fractured a hip. Besides the Janesville son, who left for Freeport this morning, seven other children survive her. Deceased was ninety-four years of age.

WARHOP NOT READY TO SIGN CONTRACT

Baseball Pitcher Who Played Around Janesville Last Fall Makes a Mistake.

Detroit, Mich., Jan. 17.—Jack Warhop, pitcher extraordinary, declines with much emphasis on the "no" to sign a contract to play for the Detroit Tigers. Jack stated it seemed to the home folks down in Indiana, that he was signed to pitch with a salary attachment of $2,200. When Jack got the usual contract tendered to him, he sat down and penned a long letter to P. A. Batters of the Tigers.

"I'm no cheap guy," he writes. "Rather than sign that contract I quit baseball for good. I'll never pitch for that figure."

Jack got just $100 for pitching for Freeport last season. His present contract offers well over $200 more than that amount. If Jack's pitching is better than his logic, he will make good.

COMING ATTRACTIONS

A glimpse behind the scenes with the mediums will be shown at the Myers theatre Sunday evening, when a spiritualistic seance will be given entitled "One Night with the Spiritists." Many of the mysteries of the spirit world will be revealed at this time and the entire revelation will be concluded with a spirit portrait. At this time the audience will be invited to name some prominent Janesville person, who has died within the past year, and if conditions are favorable, a life sized portrait of the person will be reproduced by what is usually called spirit power. The public is cordially invited to attend this meeting.

Admits Murder of Her Husband.

Duluth, Minn., Jan. 17.—Mrs. Eliza Matson, arrested Tuesday on the charge of complicity in the murder of her husband, made a complete confession Thursday to Chief of Police Madden. Matson's lifeless body was found on a bed with a double-bladed ax implanted in his skull. Mrs. Matson's excuse for killing her husband was that she thought she was killing the devil.

Greediness Rebuked.

At dinner, at a country hotel, Toole was sitting next to a gentleman who had helped himself to an extravagant large piece of bread. Toole took it up and began to eat a slice from it. "Sir," said the indignant gentleman, "that is my bread." "I beg a thousand pardons, sir," replied the actor, "I mistook it for the loaf."

OPPOSED TO A SHIP CANAL

LAKE CARRIERS' ASSOCIATION
PUTS SELF ON RECORD.

Objects to Chicago Channel Part of Lakes to Gulf Project—Detroit Convention.

Detroit, Mich., Jan. 17.—At the first two sessions of its annual convention here Thursday the Lake Carriers' association, embracing practically all of the freight tonnage on the great lakes except the lumber boats, heard President William Livingston's annual report, placed itself on record as opposing the diversion into the Chicago sanitary canal of water enough to make it a commercial waterway, elected officers and transacted a great deal of routine business.

There was no discussion of labor matters, and general counsel, Harvey A. Gouldner of Cleveland, says that there will be none during the meeting. "The labor question is in the hands of the executive board," said Mr. Gouldner, "and when the time comes they will deal with it. We have no chip on our shoulders and are not looking for any trouble in the spring. But of course we cannot tell. We may have none or on the contrary we may have a heap."

President Livingston's annual report was a lengthy review of conditions on the great lakes. In it he reported former severe criticisms of the water power companies at Sault Ste. Marie, which he charged are holding up work on the new lock for the Sault ship canal.

Explaining the association's stand against a lake to the gulf waterway, Counsel Gouldner said:

"We have not the slightest objection to the diversion into the canal of all the water necessary for sanitary purposes. But when it comes to water for commercial purposes it is another matter. We are here first, and using the waters of the lakes for the great commerce we have built up. And we will not permit them to be diverted for the benefit of another commercial waterway if we can help it."

BUSINESS OUTLOOK

"A shoe manufacturer in the west writes to a New York correspondent that the discharge of employees is due to the lack of orders and inability to sell the lower-priced products," says the Wall Street Journal. "In this particular case the manufacture of boots and shoes used by outdoor labor is especially affected. Even though this is the season for light business in such commodities, the recession has become much more intense. There is much concern as to the effect of a prolonged period of suspension and reduction of labor. Banks are slow to lend manufacturers, even though they seem to be increasing deposits."

"From an eastern town a manufacturer of refrigerating appliances, including ice plants, reports an excellent business, which has been somewhat stimulated by the open winter. The failure thus far to get the usual ice crop, in many sections which heretofore depended upon their natural supplies, has brought in orders looking as far into the future as midsummer."

"From these two instances it is evident that no general inference can be drawn as to the conditions of manufacture. The only general condition prevailing among them seems to be the reduction in stocks and supplies to the minimum which business necessities require. Referring to an iron concern which manufactures pipe for municipal purposes largely, an official is quoted as saying that 'probably never in their history have they been running so completely on a hand-to-mouth principle.' This has its bright side, however, inasmuch as the first indications of revival of business will create an immediate demand, resulting in a prompt resumption of employment of labor."

"These reports coming from different sources, indicate the unsettled condition of business. A general disposition prevails in all parts of the country, to buy light and reduce stocks. Prices on many goods are too high, and with a prospective declining market, there is no inducement to lay in stock beyond actual requirements."

"The railroads of the country are a good barometer. Today more than 200,000 freight cars are idle. This means stagnation, to greater or less extent in business, which time alone can dispel. The year promises to be conservative, but before it closes there will be a restoration of confidence, the political destiny will be settled for another four years, and times will assume normal conditions."

THE SPRING ELECTIONS

"The municipal elections, held in the spring, are usually without political significance, as the issues involved are local in character, having to do with the policy of home government."

But there has developed in the past year, a question of national scope, which in many instances has become the leading issue in municipal campaigns."

This is the law and order issue, which has assumed such magnitude, under rapid development, as to become the all-absorbing issue."

The larger cities of the south, with rare exception, have recognized popular sentiment, and the old democratic party, which controls in that section of the country, has honored itself by coming out boldly in support of law and order."

It is an issue so important that party lines may well be ignored, for it appeals to all classes of law-respecting citizens, and is not hampered by the hypocritical political prohibition movement."

The only organized opposition is on the part of the liquor interests, and while these men claim to respect the law, they argue that legal inter-ence is an infringement on personal liberty.

The saloonmen of Wisconsin have recently perfected a state organization for self-protection, and to influence, as far as possible, state and municipal legislation.

This means that efforts will be made to control, in the licensed cities of the state, and forces the issue to a plain proposition between the enforcement of regulatory laws, or the adoption of less stringent measures.

It is not a question of prohibition, so far as these cities are concerned, for prohibition is not the issue, neither is it a temperance question, for the business is licensed by the state, and will continue to be for years to come.

It is a question of regulation, pure and simple, and the enforcement of regulatory laws, to which no reasonable man should object.

"The ticket, which these men will place in the field, will not be called a saloon ticket. It will be the people's ticket, or something of that sort, to attract votes, and an effort will be made to get the endorsement of one or the other of the two political parties."

Whatever may be the title, the organization will be opposed to the enactment and enforcement of radical law and order measures, just now so popular throughout the country.

Radical prohibition voters will do well to remember that they can accomplish nothing, in this issue, by voting the prohibition ticket, but they can strengthen the movement by joining forces with the law and order element, which will include the best in all parties, and adding to elect men to public office, who will enforce regulatory laws without fear or favor.

This is not a fight against the saloon, as a business, for the men engaged in it are licensed by the state, and entitled to protection.

It is a fight against all law-breakers, of whatever name and nature. "The town is full of all sorts of gambling devices, from the penny-in-the-slot and nickel pool game, to card games without number."

These should be suppressed or regulated for the safety of the boys who are being ruined by them, and for the fair name of the city which tolerates them."

"The cities of the land are in the midst of a thorough housecleaning, and Wisconsin cities, including Janesville, will not be exempt."

While there is no disposition to inflict hardship, there is a strong determination to enforce laws, and the people generally are behind the movement."

Secretary of State James A. Fear has made an exhaustive statement as to why the 27 life insurance companies left the state, but the people are still of the opinion that it was because of drastic and fool legislation. There was no more sense in driving these companies from the state, than there was for the state of Texas to drive out fire insurance companies. The people are the losers in both cases."

Alasgood has endorsed Taft for the presidency, and Iowa republicans are getting ready to do the same thing. The genial secretary of war has a strong following in Wisconsin, which will crystallize after the ravage-bomb is exploded. If Taft is defeated in the convention, it will be because of opposition in the east, where Roosevelt's policies are not popular."

This is the age of limits, on fines and punishments. Judge Landis set the pace on his $29,240,000 fine, and a Los Angeles court followed suit to the tune of $330,000 in a case against the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railroad. It is a fine, which is a fine, and enjoys the limit, he will go into retirement at Joliet for 1600 years."

The Old Yellow Pumpkin.

How dear to my heart is the old yellow pumpkin, when orchards are barren of stuffing for pies; when pomegranates and apples have both been a failure, and berries no longer dazzle my eyes. How fondly I turn to the fruit of the cornfield—the fruit country kids are taught to despise—the old yellow pumpkin, the mud-covered pumpkin, the pot-bellied pumpkin that makes such good pies."

At the Summer Hotel.

She (on their wedding trip in the mountains)—"Carlo, what's that long white streak on the ground over toward our inn?" He—"My Lord! That's probably our bill!"—Transatlantic Tales."

Of Course They Said So.

"How did you happen to come to me for your dentistry," said Dr. Richards to a patient recently.

"Why, you see I'm a stranger here," said the party, "and I inquired of several people as to what dentist to go to and they all said 'to Dr. Richards' if I wanted 'Painless work'."

"Of course, I didn't want to be hurt and so I came up to you."

"Well, are you sorry you came?"

"Not a bit. You never hurt me in the least."

It's worth something to have such a reputation for Painless Dentistry. If you need dentistry and wish perfect satisfaction try Dr. Richards. He "delivers the goods."

LIGHTING PLANT FOR COUNTY JAIL

THAT'S HOW COUNTY DADS MAY SOLVE ILLUMINATION PUZZLE.

DEEM BIDS MUCH TOO HIGH

Town of Beloit Took Too Much Money for Building Roads and Must Pay Some of It Back—Session of Board at an End.

After a discussion of the lighting bills in the county jail, the county board yesterday afternoon passed a motion instructing the purchasing committee of the board to look into the advisability and the cost of purchasing and installing a lighting plant in the jail to be owned by the county. This action was caused by the dissatisfaction felt by some of the members of the board at the amount of money that it cost the county to light the jail.

Vacate Edgerton Streets
On motion of L. E. Gettle and on his report that proper petitions had been filed it was decided to vacate certain Edgerton streets named in the petitions.

To Lend Rollers
It was also decided that the rollers which the board decided to purchase for the county's use should be lent to the various towns and villages in the county when they were not wanted by the county.

District Attorney Fisher's report was submitted by committee number two and was adopted.
Mr. Sherman then introduced a resolution asking that the Town of Beloit be required to pay back part of the money which it had received for building roads. Under the law a town can only build one mile of road a year and the county need only pay for half of that. It is claimed that the Town of Beloit received more than the law allows in the amount of money which it has had for road-building purposes.

Discuss Telephone Bills
The issue in the price of telephone by the Rock County Telephone company was also discussed. A motion was made and passed that the purchasing committee should take out the desk phone in the jail and put in a wall-phone in its place.
Chairman Jones Thanks Board
This being the last meeting of the present board, after the business of the day was over Chairman Jones thanked the board for their attention and the care and interest which they had displayed during the existence of the present board. There will be no more meetings until the new board is elected and gets together after the spring election.

ARE WORKING ON MONTEREY BRIDGE

Steel is Being Placed and Men are at Work Putting up False Work Over River.

Work on the new Monterey bridge is being pushed in spite of the cold weather. A gang of eleven bridge men are at work putting up steel, and fifteen riveters arrived last Monday from Chicago and are also at work. About thirty-five men are at work building the false work and three work trains are on the job. Most of the big steel trusses have arrived here and one has been already put in place.
One of the work trains in charge of conductor J. J. Dulin and engineer Webber with fireman Lewis, engine 372, is working with the derrick on the bridge. One work train is with the steam shovel at the bolt line switch getting out dirt which is being hauled to fill in over the cement work over Western Ave.
Yesterday the steel for the bridge over the Racine and Southwestern tracks of the St. Paul was put in place and the bridge will be ready in a day or two.
At first it was thought that the bridge could be finished in six weeks but from the outlook now it probably will take twice that length of time.

by Supposedly Independent Concerns.

New York, Jan. 17.—With the testimony Thursday afternoon of William H. King, agent of the Standard Oil company in New York, the hearings in the government's suit to dissolve the Standard Oil company were concluded so far as this city is concerned. The next session will be held in Washington on January 23.

At the afternoon session testimony regarding alleged payment of rebates or commissions by the Pennsylvania railroad to the Standard on oil shipments was brought out. The government also sought to show by the testimony of Agent King that the Standard had made something of a practice of maintaining supposedly independent companies in New England territory until such companies were well established, when they would be taken over by the Standard and their business absorbed.

Commissions from Railroad.
Examined after the recess, Jefferson Justice, assistant to the controller of the Pennsylvania railroad, testified to confirm one of the exhibits in the case, a contract between the Standard Oil company and the Pennsylvania railroad by the terms of which the oil company was to be paid commissions of ten per cent. on all its oil shipments. The contract provided that no other shippers were to receive commissions unless they made shipments equal to the Standard. Mr.
Justice testified that no other company shipped as much oil as the Standard.

Mr. Justice produced another contract between the Pennsylvania Railroad company and the National Transit company, alleged to be a concern in which the Standard was interested, drawn in 1881 and not cancelled, the witness stated, until 1905. Mr. Justice said he remembered vaguely that in 1878 there was an agreement for the payment by the Pennsylvania of 20 cents a barrel on oil shipments to the American Transfer company, of which Daniel O'Dea was manager.

New Englanders Were Fooled.
William H. King, agent of the Standard Oil company in New York, said that since 1898 he has had charge of the sales of refined oil and naphtha in this state and the New England states.
He admitted receiving minute details of shipments and sales made by competitors in this district. He said he sold oil to the New England Oil company occasionally. "We sold oil in Boston," he added, "through the Eastern Oil & Gasoline Supply company, which sold direct to consumers."
"Was it an independent or a Standard Oil company?"

"Everybody supposed it was a Standard Oil company."
Mr. King said that the Standard sold in Providence through the Household Supply company, but that the Standard took it over and was now running it. It also, he testified, sold oil through the Mehlon Household Supply and through Funk & Bros. in Brooklyn.

"And these supply concerns were held out as independent sellers?"

"I suppose so, but they were registered in the county clerk's office as being owned by the Standard Oil company."

"You also sold oil in Boston through the Liberty company?"

"Yes, until that concern was taken over by the Standard."

"Why did the Standard run these concerns as independent?"

"They were run that way until they got them in good shape and we then bought them out and took them in."

REAL LEAP YEAR WEDDING.

Minneapolis Romance Is to Culminate
in the Jail.

Minneapolis, Minn., Jan. 17.—Miss Emily Steger, 729 Fourth avenue south, Thursday took out a license to wed Charles Eakin, and Minneapolis' first real leap year wedding ceremony is to be performed in the county jail. Eakin, the groom, is serving a five months' term in the jail on a charge of grand larceny in the second degree. Miss Steger is 22 years old.
Eakin's age is the same.

The wedding will come as the culmination of a friendship which has lasted since their childhood and which developed into love only after Eakin had been convicted. Unwilling to ask the woman of his choice to marry a man who had been convicted of crime, Eakin believed that he and Miss Steger would never be wedded. It was here that leap year entered the romance. Miss Steger visited Eakin in the jail, told him that she would marry him if he wished, and when he had consented she arranged the details of the jail wedding.

Kills His Father with an Ax.
Davidson, N. C., Jan. 17.—Ezekiel Gregory, a farmer, over 60 years old, was killed Thursday by his son Dave, the weapon used being an ax. The murderer, accompanied by his wife, left immediately, but both were arrested near Mooreville, N. C.

ENGLAND UNDER WATER.

The upper cut shows a sea of raging water on the Windsor race course, with the grandstand isolated in the water. The lower cut shows the swollen river Thames at Hampton Court.

England is suffering seriously from the great gale of last week, which has caused serious floods throughout the British Isles. In the upper Thames valley the river has risen with alarming rapidity. The water has been running through houses, roads have become impassable and in many instances the water extends to a great distance on either side of the river banks.

BLOOD POISON

HUMILIATING-VILE-DESTRUCTIVE

The first symptom of Contagious Blood Poison is usually a little sore or ulcer, which is quickly followed by a red rash on the skin, swollen glands in the groin, falling hair, ulcerated mouth and throat, and often copper colored blotches on different parts of the body. As the blood becomes more fully contaminated with the poison, pustular eruptions and sores break out on the flesh, and in extreme cases the nerves and bones are attacked and the finger nails drop off. Then the sufferers find themselves diseased from head to foot with this humiliating, vile and destructive poison. No other disease is so highly contagious; many an innocent person has been inoculated by handling the clothing or using the toilet articles of an infected person. There is but one certain, reliable cure for Contagious Blood Poison, and that is S. S. S. It attacks the disease in the right way by going down into the circulation, and neutralizing and forcing out every particle of the poison. It makes the blood pure and rich, tones up the system, and completely and permanently cures this disease. S. S. S. has cured thousands of cases of Contagious Blood Poison. If you are suffering with this debasing and destructive disease begin the use of S. S. S. and get the poison out of your blood before it permanently wrecks your health. We have a home treatment book on the disease which we will send free to all who wish it, and in addition our physicians will give without charge any medical advice needed.
